When You Say Nothing at All

Words and Music by
Don Schlitz and Paul Overstreet

(Capo 1st fret)

Intro

| D A | G A | D A | G A |

Verse 1

D A G A D A G A
It's amaz - ing how you can speak right to my heart.

D A G A D A G A
Without say - ing a word you can light up the dark.

G A
Try as I may I could nev - er explain

D A G A
What I hear when you don't say a thing.

Chorus 1

D A
The smile on your face

G A
Lets me know that you need me.

D A
There's a truth in your eyes

G A
Saying you'll never leave me.

D A
A touch of your hand

G A G/B A/C#
Says you'll catch me if ev - er I fall.

G A
Now you say it best when you say nothing at all.

Best song ever flute sheet music. Popular songs on flute sheet music. Best flute sheet music.

Looking for free flute sheet music? If you're a flute player looking for more music to learn, you're in luck! There are many places to find free flute sheet music on the web. There's more music out there than you'll ever have time to explore, ranging from solos to duets to etudes and scales. You can find music in genres from Classical to Pop/Rock, Folk, and Holiday. Whether you're looking for your next solo to study or want to practice your sight reading, the six sites below are excellent options for finding free flute sheet music. Where to Find Free Flute Sheet Music International Music Score Library Project (IMSLP) The IMSLP database is one of the best places to go for free flute sheet music. If you look at the page of scores featuring the flute, you'll find thousands of scores available for free. These are classical, public domain works with varying instrumentation. Go to this site for flute solos, duets, trios, sonatas, concertos, and etudes, as well as small and large ensembles including the flute. This site can be overwhelming since there are so many pieces available. Try out some etudes, including popular ones by Anderson or Gariboldi, or play some duets, including ones by Quantz and Kuhlau. If you're really into Bach, try out some of the sonatas, partitas, and concertos. FluteTunes.com FluteTunes.com posts free flute sheet music for a new song every day. Each piece is labeled by difficulty level from "easy" through "advanced." The genres represented are mostly classical and folk music from a wide variety of cultures. Instrumentations represented include flute solos, flute duets, flute with piano, flute with organ, flute with strings, and flute with guitar. MP3 and MIDI tracks allow you to play along with the accompaniment while you learn the song. The site also has pages of flute scales and fingerings. 8notes.com 8notes.com has over 450 free flute sheet music pieces from various genres, including Classical, Rock, Pop, Jazz, Traditional, World, and Film. Songs are labeled by difficulty level from "beginning" through "hard." Play-along tracks and sheet music accompaniments are available as well. Fluters Music Fluters Music is a blog run by a high school flute player who writes out the notes for the melodies of pop songs you hear on the radio. The notes are written as letter names above the lyrics so there's no need to know how to read music! This is a great site if you're a beginning flutist and you want to play the pop songs you already know and enjoy. Herbert Lindholm Herbert Lindholm has made many of his flute compositions available for free. These include technique studies, flute solos, duets and trios, flute ensembles, and flute with piano or guitar. Most pieces are labeled by difficulty level (1-9) and also include the approximate duration of the piece. You should definitely add this to your list of sites that offer free flute sheet music. Lark In The Morning has a number of large collections of folk songs from all around the world. Collections of free flute sheet music include folk dance melodies from a variety of countries, including Armenia, Austria, Bolivia, Bosnia, Germany, Greece, and Yugoslavia! Now that you know the variety of free flute sheet music that is available, enjoy picking some new pieces you'd like to learn. There are a few pieces you may be able to learn on your own, but most will require the help of a teacher. Check out TakeLessons for an experienced flute teacher in your area. Julie P. teaches flute, clarinet, music theory, and saxophone lessons in Brooklyn, NY. She received her Bachelor's degree in Music Education from Ithaca College and her Masters in Music Performance from New Jersey City University. Learn more about Julie here! Photo by hipwithat. FREE FLUTE MUSIC ONLINE: Free and good flute sheet music has been rare to come by, but free public domain sheet music is starting to become available if you can sort the good repertoire works from the mediocre. In the long run you'll want to purchase published sheet music, as it keeps the music in print, and you get top quality paper, ink and bindings to play, mark up, erase, and play again. Your flute teacher would be the best source for asking which repertoire pieces you'd like, would suit you, and would present the right level of challenge, as you develop. (Helpful hint: Avoid playing pieces that are far too difficult. When you're finally good enough to play them well, your "hacky junior version" might come through as muscle memory.) And most free sheet music is either quite patchy in quality, not error-free (wrong notes, strange dynamics or slur markings), or not quite in the form you want it (instrumentation has to be re-arranged etc.). Plus there are many old vesions (old editions) that have slurry slurs, dynamics and cadenzas written that give away an old slurry style of playing that isn't used anymore (too dated). So be aware of the most modern editions and why they are printed as they are. Truly great quality sheet music is usually owned by a publisher. It is professionally published and sold in a sheet music store. Check Fluteworld and JustFlutes to find out what's in print. Great compositions are usually too intrinsically valuable to give away for "free" unless it's an old edition of a Baroque piece, with possible printing errors, or strange slur marks etc. So, knowing that the quality may be questionable, as of March 2018 the free sheet music sites that I've found that have some flute pieces, mostly for intermediate and advanced flutists in are: Recently found: best free music source for flute solos, studies, duets in downloadable PDF: 1. All flute scores and parts in pdf at Petrucci IMSLP free music library. Scores featuring the flute 2. Basic Flute Technique, Album of Studies op. 26 (1994) Contents: Foreword, Scales, Technical patterns, Interval exercises, Tone Studies, Other exercises, Chord exercises, Trill chart, Micro intervals, Some usual modern flute sounds, The Parts of the flute, Numbering of keys (Bartolozzi) (41 pages) PDF FILES The Album Complete: Lindholm's manual is in four parts. The first has one octave and two octave scales, Blues scale, chromatic scale etc. Part two has patterns to use as daily scale exercises (uses your brain and trains your fingers!) lip flexibility exercises, and Parts three has tone exercises, octave and third patterns, tonguing, multiple tonguing and vibrato. Part four has both trill and basic fingering charts. All four parts print out as 41 pages that can be hole punched and put in a binder. Help yourself! Lindholm is a smart flute teacher and very generous. -> Free Flute Duets: Easy Duets for two flutes (free online): List of easy flute duets: (not all strong in the duet writing department, but may be useful); Mozart & Scarlatti Duets (scroll down when you arrive at final link); Baroque Duets: Quantz duets: Duets for 2 flutes and piano: Purcell and Telemann: Also, antique 1900s flute tutor duets; large file size: Easy to intermediate marches in duet and trio: Duets vol. 2 Duets vol. 3 Popular airs in duet from 1800s: ----- BEST COMPOSED FLUTE WORKS: ----- ANDERSEN: Library of almost every flute etude and concert piece by flute composer, etude writer and virtuoso.
