Mexican war haversack pattern

Mexican war haversack.

Appearance and clothing should generally be quite worn. The battery had been clothed in early July and had put upwards of two months of service and six weeks of hard campaigning on it. The use of some amount of U.S. Army equipment to represent items picked up at Manassas and Harpers Ferry is encouraged. Despite missing much of the campaign around Richmond as it was being reequipped, the Bedford Artillery was still severely understrength, with only three guns, an incomplete supply of caissons, and hardly enough horses to pull them. Excessively long hair is discouraged and modern hair styles are unacceptable. All items worn, carried, or stowed in your gear MUST be original or a high quality reproduction. Mediocre, mainstream, or reenactor grade reproductions are entirely unacceptable.CLOTHINGAll clothing must be made with proper construction techniques, correct patterns, and 100% natural fiber cloth to closely mimic original goods.Jacket:Richmond Clothing Bureau jacket made of logwood jeans with red trimmed collar, cuffs, and epaulettes. Trim kits will be offered to those needing to appropriately trim an untrimmed Richmond jacket. Untrimmed Richmond jackets are unacceptable.Non-descript grey jeans jacket with red trim of the pattern many members of 1st Section already have.Plain grey jeans frock if you do not have one of the above.Pants:Richmond Clothing Bureau pants made of yarn dyed logwood jeans, ideally well-worn.Confederate military pants made of grey or brown jeans, ideally well-worn.U.S. Army pants taken from Manassas or Harpers Ferry stores.Shirts:Confederate issue shirt made of cotton osnaburg.U.S. Army shirt taken from Manassas or Harpers Ferry stores.Plain citizen's shirt made of wool flannel or printed cotton.*Avoid overrepresented checked cotton "homespun" shirts if at all possible.Headgear: "Early" Richmond artillery kepi, red with blue band and painted cloth covered pasteboard brim.Citizen's hat.Footwear:Confederate, U.S. Army, or citizens shoes or boots are all acceptable.BAGGAGEMounted men will carry their baggage on their saddles. Drivers will strap their baggage to the off horses. Cannoneers will store knapsacks in a wagon. Cannoneers must carry their haversacks and canteens.Blanket:Confederate, imported, U.S. Army, carpet blankets, and coverlets are all acceptable.Ground Cloth:U.S. Army gum blankets or oilcloths are equally acceptable.Shelter Half:None. The Bedford Artillery were using Fly Tents in September 1862.Knapsack:Confederate "Richmond/Clarksville Ordnance Harness Shops / "Kibler"/ "Mexican War" knapsacks are strongly encouraged with imported British knapsacks and U.S. Army knapsacks also acceptable options. Bedrolls are reluctantly accepted. Haversack:Confederate or U.S. Army haversacks are equally acceptable. Confederate bags must be plain cotton or painted cloth, copied off of an original, and be appropriate for 1862.Canteen:Confederate tin drum canteen or U.S. Army canteens are equally acceptable. U.S. Army canteens must be copies of early Philadelphia or New York canteens.ARMS AND ACCOUTREMENTSCannoneers will not wear belts or any other equipment. Mounted men may choose to wear sabers or not. HORSE EQUIPMENTSaddles:Clarksville Ordnance Harness Shops Jenifer saddles with or without valise. If you have one, bring it.Citizen's saddles, Texas saddles, and non-descript C.S. McClellan saddles.U.S. Army McClellan saddle if you have no other option.*Clarksville McClellan saddles are unacceptable.Saddle Blankets:Imported British blankets and domestically-made wool blankets.Citizen's blankets and coverlets, U.S. Army sleeping blankets, etc.Halters:Clarksville Ordnance Harness Shops "single ring" or "five ring" halter in fair, russet, or black leather.Citizen's halters and halter-bridles.U.S. Army halters if you have no other option.Headstalls:Southern-made headstall in fair, russet, or black leather.Citizen's headstalls and halter-bridles.U.S. Army headstalls if you have no other option.Bits:Southern-made forged "loose ring" curb bit, typically issued with a leather curb strap.Southern-made forged plain curb bits, copies of dragon bits, or citizen's curb or snaffle bits.U.S. Army bits if you have no other option.Nosebags:High quality nose bags are acceptable, with one provided to each pair of horses.Combs, brushes, etc..Grooming equipment will be stored with battery property under the charge of the Quartermaster Sergeant and distributed at Stable Call. Mounted men may carry their own if they so choose.ADDITIONAL ITEMSAny personal items must be original or accurate reproductions of period items. "Old timey" jugs, Mason jars, or other items are prohibited. Cell phones, modern tobacco, lighters, or any other anachronistic items are wholly unacceptable.We are placing high expectations for personal appearance and behavior upon the participants of I Hear the Distant Thunder. Modern haircuts, ponytails, modern underwear, modern socks, modern glasses, and inauthentic or inappropriate kit, etc., are unacceptable. As rations will be issued, all participants are expected to arrive with an empty haversack and not bring any food of their own into the event.
