Editor Hannah Riley is partial to the space jam: a new heireness, which will be out in theaters and on HBO max. Á ç à,~ "A type of no matter if the JamÁ ç movie space is bad or not because I mi will take back to the fourth degree and this is fantastic. "says Hannah, stressing that the film's nostalgia factor is one of his main designs. Then there is the Skin Skink Skin. Although most of the team would probably have preferred another film centered around Harley Quinn, I'll get everything we can get. Á ç à,~ "I am excited to see Pete Davidson. I'm not sure I have a cooked for him or not, but we'll find out." says that Eric. Personally, I'm looking forward to PixarÁ ç à,~ "Á ç s Luca, which will only be on Disney + and set in Italy, and the Thriller International Thriller Beckett by Netflix, produced by Luca Guadagnino and with a protagonist John David Washington. The fact is that the list of summer films is generous enough to find titles in a variety of genres and even having the chance to decide if you want to stay at home or exit at the cinema. Hannah Riley was not a devotion of film-Goer before the pandemic, but things could be changed. Á ç à,~ "I think the latest movie I saw in the theater was the ScreamÁ ç film that came out like 2011. And I really want to go to a cinema. I think it's the effect of the pandemic. I actually want Being in that kind of space, which is wild. Á ç à,~ "says.á ç you can do popcorn at home but it's not the same," he says Hanna Shea, who confesses part of the appeal to go to Cinema is the snacks. Á ç à,~ "It's a different experience to enter, collect all your snacks, don't worry about nutritional content at all and then watch monsters fight each other on the screen. That experience is very very difficult to replicate home. Á »Hanna Shea says she doesn't necessarily love to see the films in Theater pre-pandemia, but she's very excited to do it now. And she isn't the only one on the team feeling that nostalgic appeal. Á ç à,~ "One of the things of the things I complained to most during the pandemic is trying to go to a movie, only on a trip at random," says Eric, which paradoxically also says that it was not a Great theater-goer pre-pandemic. But Eric also seems that he may not be completely ready to go to a cinema. Á ç à,~ "Well, as, listen to the people chewing and breathes and it will be like: Á ç à,~ is," not wearing the masks! Á, à ç "And that pandemic anxiety could enter. So I feel like I could not be ready to go back until at least July, perhaps the end of August.á, Á "Michael, who was not in a restaurant from March 20, 20120, seems that he needs to take things slowly. Á ç à,~ "I think I should immerse the tip, starting with cinema art house that are relatively small with a limited capacity, Á ç à,~" he says. Á ç à,~ "Governing at a giant theater is not in My future. At least [not] for this year. I think I'm stay at home. Á »Film BuñÁ ç Kate, whose group of friends used all the movies when it was one thing, agrees with the idea of slowly starting visiting the neighborhood cinema instead of a large theatrical chain. Á ç à,~ "" Miss going to the cinema. We hope, I would feel at ease at a certain point this summer to immerse your toes. Á ç à,~ "says. Á ç à,~" The movies of the monsters are fun in that kind of popcorn, only complete the type Fashion evasion. It almost seems that sometimes the film itself no matter. It's more to go and have this fun time with your friends or family. This idea resounds with Hanna Shea. Once we all feel safe, we look forward to going out for dinner with a great group of friends and then go to the theater. Á ç à,~ "Á ç "Ge snacks, talks about the movie later. Essentially, take a whole evening, Á ç à,~" she says. For Hannah Riley it could be a visit to her local theater. Á ç à,~ "My husband doesn't want to go and sit in a dark room with people who breathe next to him, Á ç à,~" says Á ç à,~ "and I wonder how many of us feel the same. Himself .
