(2021 September) (Learn how and when to remove this message message) In 1988, Daniel "Danny" Maccabee (Adam Sandler), a 22-year-old man, leaves his marriage immediately before the ceremony is to start after learning his Boyfriend is trading and it was just marrying because he would have been a doctor. He goes to drink alone in a bar, where a beautiful young woman enters. She sees that Danny has a wedding ring on her hand, and asks him about her wife, to which she explains how she recently left for someone else, and the bar of the bar ends up sleeping with him. Twenty-three years later, Danny (now 45 years) is a successful plastic surgeon in Los Angeles, who pretends unhappy marriages to get women and to avoid romantic commitment that he can lead to crackle. The only conscious woman of the schemes of him is his Office Manager / Assistant and Best Friend Katherine Murphy (Jennifer Aniston), a Divorced Mother of Two. At a party, Danny meets Palmer (Brooklyn Decker), a young elementary sixth mathematics teacher, without the wedding ring of him and have a connection together. The next morning, he finds the ring and presupposes he is married. He refuses to dating because his parents divorced due to adultery. Instead of telling her the truth of her, Danny tells her that he is divorced by a woman named Devlin because he betrayed him with a man called "Dolph Lundgren" (not the actor). When Palmer insists on the Devlin meeting, Danny asks Katherine to lay as "Devlin" and go shopping for new clothes to dress like a trophy wife. A Katherine / "Devlin" Made-Over meets then with Danny and Palmer and give them the blessing of her. However, after listening to Katherine, talking on her phone with her sons, Palmer assumes that her sons of her are Danny. Danny then meets privately with Katherine's children, Maggie (Bailee Madison) and Michael (Griffin Gluck), to make them play and gives them aliases of "Kiki Dee" and "Bart" respectively. Danny accepts their requests to be fake him's sons. Palmer meets children in a Chuck E. According to the cheese playing center in which Maggie adopted a fake British accent, and Michael acts a lot Blackmail Danny in front of Palmer to take them all to Hawaii. At the airport, they are all surprised by Danny's GoofBall Cousin Eddie (Nick Swardson), who adopted an Austrian disguise as "Dolph Lundgren" who had done Danny Danny First because it is running from the new boyfriend of his ex-girlfriend since he tried to steal it back. To keep lies, Danny and Katherine are forced to take it forward. At the Hawaii resort, Danny tells Eddie who is thinking of asking Palmer to marry him. Katherine and Danny also encounter the real life of her Devlin Adams (Nicole Kidman) and her husband of her ian maxtone-jones (Dave Matthews). Due to the long date of Katherine and Devlin, Katherine introduces Danny as a husband of her rather than admitting that she is a single mother. Over time, Katherine is impressed by Danny and the way of fun of her with her sons. Katherine runs again in the Devlin, which invites her and Danny to dinner. Eddie agrees to take Palmer for dinner so that Danny can go with Katherine. Since he should be a sheep seller, Eddie's cover is almost blown when he is forced to save the life of a royal sheep who stoked on a toy whistle. At dinner, Devlin asks Danny and Katherine to tell each other what they admire most of the other, and, like Danny and Katherine talk, they start hearing a connection. Later, when Palmer and Eddie return from their dinner date, Palmer suggests that she and Danny now get married, since a Drunken Eddie told her about Danny's engagement plans. Danny and Katherine are both surprised by her proposal, but Danny ultimately agrees. Danny later called Katherine regarding her confusion of her, but Katherine says she will take a job in New York City to get a new start of her life. The next day, Palmer faces Katherine on Danny's feelings for her, that Katherine rejects. Katherine then runs in Devlin at a bar and admits that she pretends to be married to Danny to avoid embarrassment. Devlin confesses that she is divorcing Ian because he is gay and even she didn't invent the iPod, but she made her money by making the Dodgers of Los Angeles after being hit by a dirty ball. Katherine trusts Devlin to be in love with Danny, but then Danny looks after her, saying he is not marrying Palmer and that he fell in love with Katherine. Meanwhile, on the plane returns to the mainland, Palmer meets a professional tennis player (Andy Roddick) who shares her interests. Sometimes later, Danny and Katherine get married. [3] was released as "just go with it". The film was shot in Los Angeles and in the Hawaiian Islands of Maui and Kauai between March 2, 2010 and May 25, 2010. [Necessary quote] The film is deliberately vague on which its Hawaiian island its second portion depicts; So, the figures excess through a bridge of rope on Maui and arrive in the next scene in a spectacular On Kauai, rather than the normal irrigation dam and pond on Maui where the actual path ends. The characters remain in a Hawaiian hotel called Waldorf Astoria. Actually, the film was shot at the Grand Wailea in Maui, which is the property of Waldorf Astoria Astoria hotels Resort. [4] One of Jokes in the movie is the scene in which the character decker meets his obvious egg ... "Tennis pro Andy RoddickÀ € à -" As Decker and Roddick are actually married. "Every car that you chased" by the Party Ben, a mashup of "every breath you take" by police and "Chasing Cars" by Snow Patrol, is one of the main music themes. The reception office was cashed by $ 103 million dollars in the US and Canada and $ 111,900,000 in other territories for a worldwide gross of $ 214.9 million. [5] The film has exceeded its box office opening weekend with $ 30.5 million. [6] The largest market of other territories is Russia, where it grossed $ 13,174,937. [7] Critical response on Rotten Tomatoes, the film has an approval rating of 19%, based on 137 reviews, with an average score of 3,77 / 10. The site's consensus reads: "Just go with it may be slightly better than some entries in the genre recently terrible Rom-Com, but it is far from a recommendation. " [8] On Metacritic, the film has a score of 33 out of 100, based on 31 critics, indicating "generally unfavorable reviews". [9] The public interviewed by CinemaScore gave the film a B grade scale of A to F. [10] The Telegraph called simply with it in his "ten worst of the worst films of 2011" list, saying it is a "fat and an overpopulated remake of cactus flower, served as a romanzomio serial deception. " [11] Christopher Orr Atlantic noted that "the title itself seems a reason for the public" tolerance "and is part of a disappointing trend that involves" the reinitazione good, though perhaps not quite classic, associated to this film " last '60s and early '70s. " [12] Entertainment Weekly Lisa Schwarzbaum wrote that just go with it "is saved from total disaster", though, by Jennifer Aniston" which "expert comic timing" and "plays like an adult."
