There are so many of us who look like the NOS Tro God perfect sometimes feeds with us because we are imperfect, imperfect humans. We often believe that God will abandon us because we continue to sin and fall short. But in this edifying evangelical song, Matthew West tells us new time and time that our God loves us too much to leave us or abandon. If this does not encourage you when you're stuck in a furrow, I don't know what will do it. The most encouraging texts: à ĉ à, ~ à "ou the God that Staysyou was what runs in my director when the world all over the world walks awayYouà ĉ à, ~ à" e king the God that was Sasterwith Wide-Open Arms and you don't tell me anything I've ever made my heart separate from the god that remains - surrounded (fighting my battles) à ĉ à, ~ "Michael W. Smith Famous contemporary Christian artist and the leader of worship Michael Smith uses us A simple message in this powerful song. Although we may seem surrounded, even though our enemies may no longer neri than ten to one, we have an even more powerful warrior on our God. So yes, we could be surrounded by all sides, we could be, felling, but we will never be defeated until the Lord is from our part. Lyrics more encouraging: à ĉ à, ~ à "It is possible to seem that I am surrounded but I was surrounded by Youit might seem that I am surrounded but I am surrounded by Te Battistelli when Ndai through a really difficult moment, and all hope feel lost, can be really easy to become a prisoner (or a slave) for fear. But while we might be afraid of moments, we must not let him check our lives. In this anthem, Francesca Battistelli tells us that we are strong, we are brave, we have Christ and for this reason, there is nothing that we must fear. Lyrics more encouraging: à ĉ à, ~ "Temido, you are not own meticello Ain you're not room in this storyand I Ainà» I had time to win me what I don't like you to know me well guess what? know who I know you know I'm strong, strong, I am free, 19 divide the sea - hannah kerr you may have found yourself in a situation where you did everything you could do and nothing worked, and now you feel like you were literally caught in the red sea. In this song, we are remembered that God is still who says it is and if we allow him to do it, if we abandon our situation to our father, will do much more than we could ever think or imagine. most encouraging texts: àĉ "the believeevery promise that you have not been faithful, every moment it is possible to seem impossible your god of miraclesyou has always made a way for meyou can still divide the sea" alive like you. TM loved àĉ hawk nelson there are so many of us who, when we mess up when things are not going well, I feel that we did not like anyone. We often feel rejected, and alone. In this beautiful anthem, we are remembered that we are loved, we are loved by God and showed us this fantastic love when he sent his only and only son to come into the world and be crucified on the cross for us. the most encouraging texts: àĉ œLive like you loved, walks as if you were free as if you know, who made you believe like you, like you, as you believe, love is everything, that you " Il has never been loved like you, beloved, 21 years intentionally - green travis, have you ever heard that things are falling apart in front of your eyes? how did you show an open door but just get rid of it before you can even walk through it? I was there and felt like the most unfortunate person in the world. travis greene shoots it from the roofs in this Christian song to serve as a reminder that all things, no matter if they are good or bad, they are working for our good because God is intentional in everything he does, even when we feel life is too much, there is someone we can go to who has our best intentions in the heart. More encouraging lyrics: àĉ "We can smile àĉTM because we know that pain and pain is going on know that it works for my youth know that it works for my goodi donàĉTM said worried àĉTM the cause that works for me, yes, there is no power - lincoln brewster what it means that there is power in the name of Jesus? means that no matter what life your way can throw, once you call the name of Jesus, things change, bow knees, languages confessure, miracles happen. If you feel like you have no power to change your situation, call the name of Jesus because there is power in his name. More encouraging lyrics: àĉ "not afraid, no lie are against us now is here, the word has comet silence of every doubt is here - 23 leverdence àĉ" raise a hallelujah song that I listen repeatedly is àĉ " to hallelujahàĉ from the group's leverdence, the words of this song remind us that whenfacing battles that seem unbeatable, all we have to do is praise the Lord and He will fight for us. It reminds us that our weapons did not lie in the things around us, in, whom is within us. The weapons of our war are not physical weapons but spiritual weapons that can win any battle. Most encouraging texts: "Sing a little louder (in the presence of my enemies) Sing a little louder (higher than unbelief) Sing a little louder (my weapon is a melody) Sing a little louder (Heaven comes to fight for me) I will sing in the middle of the storm Louder and stronger you will hear my rough praise On from the ashes, hope will rise Death is defeated. 24 Control - Tenth Avenue North When you go through difficult times, it is often easier for us to control everything we can especially when there are many things outside our control. The message of this song is so important to us because, as Christians, we must constantly renounce the control of our life to God to allow him to move freely in our lives. When we feel overwhelmed it is time for us to let go and give control to God Most Encouraging Lyrics: "I've had plans thick and broken things I hoped inFall through my hands You have plans. Redeeming and restoring You're behind and in front of meOh, help me believe" 25 While I'm waiting - John Waller There have been so many times in my life when I have gone through difficulties and I have had to wait for God. I recently talked about my journey to Poland and all the obstacles I had to overcome to get here. The wait was hard. It felt endless, but this song really helped me keep it hard when things seemed never to improve. Waiting for God proves our patience, but while you wait, remember that God is with you. He is for you and will never turn Her back on you. Most encouraging texts: "While I'm waiting for you I'll observe YouWhat I'm waiting for to worship While I'm waiting for I won't fade I'll run the race even while I wait I'll move forward boldly and confident I will take every step in obedience" What do you think?
