Ipswich v Brentford match report

Merseyside 239 ° Derby happens at the Goodison Park on Wednesday with Everton out the way he hopes to stop a side of Liverpool from Gratis in his bands. "We know how Rafa Benitez goes to the front," said BBC Sport Football Football Reds Defender Mark Lawrenson. "He will make sure they are well organized." But even take the occasion in account, and to know that the game will be played in 200mph with the tackles, I simply can not see them keeping Liverpool quiet. "Liverpool are the main punctuators to the Premier League this season, marking a three day for gamelawro is making predictions for all 380 vain 380 matches this season, against a variety of guest. Er Holly as they send your wishes to the Christmas priest in VÄ © Christmas, but have them stolen by mischievous desire, is a scenario B en knows only very well in real life as fans of hammers, because they have not won a trophane since was born - and the closest they came was the day that Steven Gerrard played the role of Taker desire. "I'm still not in the final of 2006, so I still," said BBC Sport. "Correspondence of Day Kickabout once made me talk about the goal of Gerrard who did it 3-3 for a piece, which was very painful to be honest." They showed it to me and, as it leaves, obviously, what happens obviously what happens, I was still thinking'He won't score there'.. What is it? © Of course he is. Cup Archive: Liverpool 3-3 West Ham (2006) Ben was born in Ipswich and grew up in Somerset, Midlands and Devon, but wherever he lived, he was always a West Ham fan because of his father. "We have not won a trophane since 1980 for nobody to call me a supporter of glory," he added. "But I do not remember making a choice to support West Ham. It's not as if I had been forced to it, but it's as if it were always one thing ... it was always part of the My existence. " Every Christmas and birthday, I only have West Ham's things. Everything from the border of wallpaper, curtains and quilts for boxes of pencils and shutters, if I had, so I had west ham in it. It did not matter much for me on that time our team was not very good. "When we lived in the many lands between 1994 and 1998, we always saw the hammers when they played there, but in the nineties, I had to follow them in Matchdays via CEEFAX." If West Ham was at home, we will always be in the last page. So when I was hoping for him to click through, I was just so excited and almost praying we had marked. "My first herois were Ian Bishop and Trevor Morley, and the great Ludek Miklosko in the goal, and I loved it when Harry Redknapp was in charge and we signed John Hartson and Paul Kitson and they saved us from delivery." A little later, we had so many good young players --frank Lampard, Ferdinand River, Michael Carrick, Jermain Defoe and especially Joe Cole. I have so many good memories of this time, but our current team is also very special. "I call David Moyes' Sir David "anyway and man is a soccer genius, but if he earns a trophane, well then build a statue because it would be the best day of the my life." Maybe this happens, maybe not. Thinking well, it probably will not happen. "Ben's desire to win a trophane always becomes a reality? But I like Watford and they have some good players - read a few days ago that their former president [and lifetime president] Elton John is giving a concert at the Vicarage Road in July, so I hope they're still in the Premier League at that time. 0-3Match reportWest Ham 1-1Brighton (19:30 GMT) Forecast of Lawro: 2-0Ben forecast: I love the way we play now, genuinely. It doesn't really matter who's on the team because we still use the same system - everyone knows how we're going to install and we're going to play. We press the ball so well, we're great on the counter-attack and I love our talent players. We're usually terrible against Brighton because they're a good team, and they're usually boring games, so my head says this is a draw, but I have to support us to win, right? 2-1Match reportWolves 0-0 BurnleyLawro's prediction: 1-0Ben's prediction: Wolves are quietly flying. I looked at the table and thought, "How are they in sixth? But they're just playing very well and moving on. I made aabout the MOTD community in Burnley and I met Sean Dyche, who was so kind all gifts. I wouldn't want to be on the wrong side of him, but I would never want to disappoint him because he was such a good guy. 1-0Match reportAston Villa 1-2 Man CityLawro's prediction: 1-1Ben's prediction: Although it has not yet surpassed what happened at the end of the 2006 FA Cup, it is really nice to see Stevie G back in the Premier League. Manchester City are going to win though, and how good would it be if Grealish scored and then went over to their fans and got a pair of clippers and shaved off his hair: 1-3Match reportEverton 1-4 LiverpoolLawro's prediction: 0-2Ben's prediction: Everton are on a terrible run and Liverpool are flying. 0-2 Match reportTHURSDAYTottenham 2-0 BrentfordLawro's prediction: 2-0Ben's prediction: 3-1Match reportMan Utd 3-2 ArsenalLawro's prediction: 2-1Ben's prediction: 2-0 Match reportLawro was speaking to BBC Sport's Chris Bevan. How did Lawro do last week? Last weekend, Lawro got six correct results from nine matches, including one exact score, for a total of 90 points. He beat rapper Jelani Blackman, who got four correct results with one exact score, for a total of 70 points. Arsenal fan Jelani backed Burnley to beat Tottenham 1-0, but that game was postponed because of heavy snow.
